INFORMATION PURSUANT TO LAW 675/1996

AISC & MGR srl - AIM Group, with registered office in Rome, via Adelaide Ristori, 38 (The Company), as treatment holder, informs you that providing your personal data is voluntary, but non acceptance of personal data processing will prevent your participation in the congress. The personal data are treated for purposes connected or functional to the performances related to your participation in the congress, and also for free delivery of documentation related to other congresses or initiatives of the Company or of the other companies of the AIM Group. Data treatment is performed through manual elaboration or electronic or automated instruments so guaranteeing a strict correlation to the aim pursued and the confidentiality and security of the personal data. The treatment holder may avail itself of other companies of the AIM Group and/or subjects which it trusts (herein after "Third Companies"), to carry out, as autonomous treatment holders, technical or organisational activities such as: printing, enveloping, transmission, transportation and handling of communications to clients, data processing or data-processing advice. Your consent also covers the treatment performed by such Third Companies, indication of the identity of which is available free of charge upon request to the Responsible for Treatment. In addition to the Third Companies, the personal data can be communicated to scientific associations, publishers, financial and bank intermediaries, as well as companies participating in the congress with promotional functions. Article 13 of the law 675/1996 grants you specific rights. In particular, you have the right to know at any time which personal data are in possess of the Company and how these data are used. You also are entitled to request the updating, integration, modification or cancellation of such data or otherwise to request their blockage and to oppose to their treatment. It is pointed out that the cancellation and the blockage refer to the data treated in violation of the law; for integration a specific interest must be claimed. The right to oppose can be always exercised with respect to commercial and marketing material referable to direct sales or market research; in the other cases, opposition assumes a legitimate cause. Requests pursuant to art. 13 and those pertaining to the indication of identity of the other responsables of the treatment can be addressed to the attention of the Responsible for Treatment, in person of the AIM's pro tempore managing director, domiciled at the registered office of the Company, via Adelaide Ristori, 38, 00197 Roma. (Date and signature for the authorisation to treat and communicate the data as described in the information).
